TELLY AWARDS
REAL LIFE 101 JUST WON A 2008 BRONZE TELLY AWARD IN THE CATEGORIES OF "CHILDRENS" AND "EDUCATIONAL".

2008 PARENTING AWARD

The concept for Real Life 101 is bold yet simple. Real life jobs and careers are explored in an energetic style as an education and information (E/I) presentation for teenage viewers, ages 13-16 in 2008. The careers and people chosen to reflect those categories offer a vital inside look at what it would really be like to choose that particular profession. A co-host approach allows for interchange of questions and responses adding viewer stimulation and insight.

Episode 108

What was your favorite interview from last season? Our new host, AJ, will start this year off with a look back at our faves.

We're going to revisit The University of Florida . . . and find out why the students say "It's great to be a Florida Gator". Then it's off to the cruise ship Carley boarded, where we'll bring you our interview with the Cruise Director who told us about all the activities and jobs available onboard. . We'll also look back at one of our most requested interviews - the fulfilling career of a Speech Therapist.

Episode 109

First up, our new segment host, Krystal is going to visit a TV newsroom and find out if there is more to being a TV anchor than just looking good on camera and reading the news. Then, Shawn, our returning host from a few seasons ago, will sit down with a lady who turned a passion for bath and body products into a business selling handmade creations. And finally, Krystal will take the big step into the cab of an 18 wheeler and get the lowdown on being a long distance trucker.

Episode 110

Shawn is off to the hospital where he'll visit a critical care room and get a glimpse into the fulfilling career of an ICU nurse. Then Krystal has an appointment with the IRS – let's see if she's in trouble. While we're there, we'll find out about career opportunities available. And Shawn will chill by the natural spring waters of Wekiva Springs State Park and chat with a lady who spends her day as a Park Ranger.

Episode 111

Krystal starts us out at City Hall and meets the Mayor of the City Beautiful – can you guess which city has that nickname? Then Shawn learns how pollutants we dump in our yards, drains and the waters around us can really mess up our lakes and rivers, and even determine which bugs and critters live there. And Krystal will take you to visit a church and see how the pastor helps it grow and inspires both members and visitors to feel part of the faith community.
