Mrs. Gladney's indelible spirit for community affairs has afforded her to work in the political arena for the late Congressman Julian C. Dixon and as well as being appointed a commissioner under Assembly member Mervyn Dymally. For many years, she has extended herself to the community through her local cable talk show, "Building Bridges with Wendy Gladney" which has helped others overcome personal issues in their lives. Wendy is also a featured weekly guest speaker on KJLH 102.3's Front Page with Dominique DiPrima, Friday mornings at 5:00am. Her dedication to the Los Angeles community is exhibited in all that she does, such as producing dynamic events supporting Los Angeles based businesses and venues, being the Event Essentials Editor for Save-the-Date magazine and a contributing writer for the Black Business Association Newspaper.
